

If I wash my apples in chlorine products and then rinse them in water that complies with the Safe Drinking Water Act, can I label them as 100% organic?

Yes. Produce is still 100% organic after being rinsed in water that complies with the Safe Drinking Water Act. The use of chlorine materials as a sanitizer does not affect the organic status of the commodity.

e-CFR